

Dear Community Service Scholarship Applicant:

The Darien Woman's Club $1500 Community Service Scholarship is awarded annually to 2 high school seniors from the Darien area (applicants do not have to live in Darien) that have contributed considerable time in the area of community service and plan to attend college in the fall of 2018. High school social or athletic involvement is not considered volunteer work for the purpose of this scholarship. The focus of volunteer work should show integrity, leadership, responsibility and commitment to community service.

The completed application packet must include the following 4 items:

1. This page with completed information:

Name _____

Address, City, Zip _____

Telephone _____

High School _____

Parent's Signature _____

2. A list with 3 columns:
 - Name of community/school service and a description of the service activities
 - Dates of service activities
 - Approximate number of volunteer hours per week, month, or year with calculated total
3. One page or less, typewritten essay on how community service has enriched your life. Include the colleges or schools to which you've applied.
4. One letter of recommendation from a representative of the community service reflecting on the applicant's integrity, leadership, responsibility and commitment to community service. Describe the applicant's participation and why the applicant is deserving of this scholarship. Applicant's name at the top of page only.

Please send completed application by March 1, 2018, to:
